Allowable Subject Matter

I. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Sagers et al. disclose a an apparatus described, whereby one or more operating parameters of a mobile radio may be varied automatically, and without human intervention, based on the location of the radio.

Da Silva discloses an apparatus and method, which removes the public's discretion to ignore rules and requests forbidding the use of wireless communication devices in specific locations.

Maruyama disclose mobile station equipment, base station equipment, exchange, and mobile communication system that can prevent the aforementioned accidents economically and reliably without modifying the standard hardware structure.

Therefore, all of the above prior art fails to disclose at said controller in said vehicle, deriving information relating to restrictions on the use of personal communications devices in at least one geographic region, at said controller in said vehicle, determining whether said geographic location of said vehicle bears a predetermined relationship to at least one of said geographic regions, transmitting a message from said controller in said vehicle to said at least one personal communications device imposing restrictions on use of each said personal communications device while said predetermined relationship exists.

Claims 1-27, 37-40, 48-51 are cancelled.

Claims 28-36, 41-47, 52-68 are allowed based on Brown et al. in view of Sagers et al.
